

Descant

6 To Thee, our Lord, who died for us, yet rose a - gain in glo - ry,

1 Lord God of Hosts, how great Thy might when an - cient Is - rael lead - ing,
 2 Thy love, O God, how man - i - fest when Thy great Name con - fess - ing,
 3 O God, as time still on - ward ran, a day - star Thou didst send us,
 4 Ad - mitt - ed to Thy cov - enant grace, to Thee by faith be - long - ing,
 5 Ad - mit us to Thy glo - rious love when death our life is bring - ing,
 6 To Thee, our Lord, who died for us, yet rose a - gain in glo - ry,

in Thy as - cen - sion fill - ing up sal - va - tion's won - drous sto - ry.

Thou gav'st a guide by day, by night, in cloud and fire suc - ceed - ing.
 Thou gav'st Thy peo - ple peace and rest, Canaan's bright land poss - ess - ing.
 The guid - ing beam for Gen - tile man in mer - cy to be - friend us.
 be - hold the ran - somed Gen - tile race a - round Thy cha - riot thron - ing.
 that we may all re - joice a - bove in end - less glo - ry sing - ing, in Thy as - cen - sion fill - ing up sal - va - tion's won - drous sto - ry.

Text: attr. Eliza Humphreys

Tune: St. Columba, Irish melody; desc. Alan Gray (1855-1935)