Metrical Collects
from the Book of Common Prayer

Preface

Martin Luther famously said that music is the handmaiden of theology. In 1523, he wrote to Georg Spalatin that his decision to focus on hymnody as a major part of his evangelisation was that so “the Word of God may be among the people in the form of music.” Indeed, as any Christian in a pew can tell you, this has come to pass, and not only in traditions descending from Wittenburg, but also in those descending from Canterbury. From “Abide with me” and “Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah” becoming civic hymns in the United Kingdom, to the American people’s love of “Amazing grace”, to Canadian hymnographers’ retrieval and English translation of the first North American Christmas carol “’Twas in the moon of wintertime”, hymnody, and the Word of God as found in these beloved texts, is truly among the people in Anglican churches worldwide.

The Prayer Book collects, too, are part of the Word of God as we continue to receive it. In his preface to the first Book of Common Prayer in 1549, Archbishop Thomas Cranmer wrote that the service must be said in the local vernacular – “to the end that the congregation may be thereby edified.” One of his successors in the episcopal ministry, Bishop Daniel Martins of the Episcopal Diocese of Springfield, noted that the Collects have much to teach us and may be appropriate “grist for the homiletical mill.” We could not agree more.

Eliza Humphreys’ Metrical Collects from the Book of Common Prayer set the Prayer Book collects to poetic verse. We build upon her artistic foundation, hoping to bring this facet of God’s word into a most beloved form of transmission, hymnody. In this book of the same name, each collect for the liturgical year, as paraphrased by Ms. Humphreys and adapted as necessary, is set to a hymn tune. We supplement these classical collects with some additional prayers, canticles, and anthems suitable for use in the Daily Office by Anglicans of diverse churchmanship.

Some selected tunes will be familiar and instantly recognizable, some will be older and obscure, and some will be by a more modern composer. All who use this resource are invited to dig into Ms. Humphreys’ expoundings of Cranmer’s original texts and to learn and love the associated hymn tunes, whether they be new to all or merely new to the listener. God is calling us to sing a new, old song. Won’t you join in?

Morning Prayer

The Second Collect, for Peace.

1 O God, the au - thor of e - ter - nal peace,
 2 Lo - ver of con - cord, ha - ter of all strife,
 3 Thy gra - cious ser - vice yields a sa - cred calm;
 4 O e - ver-more be Thou our sole de - fense!

at Whose com - mand the winds and wa - ters cease
 in Whose deep know - ledge stands our heaven - ly life,
 on woun - ded spi - rits pours di - vin - est balm, Say to our en - e - my, "De - part thou hence!"

their wild and an - gry rag - ing:
 e - ter - nal love en - gag - ing:
 o'er an - guished hearts pre - vail - ing.
 Sus - tain us in all fail - ing.

5 Give us, in all assaults of dangers keen,
 in trusting faith upon Thy power to lean,
 our very fears forgetting:

6 In the dear love of Jesus Christ our Lord,
 our Savior, God, the everlasting Word, Whose might there is no letting.

The Third Collect, for Grace.

1 Lord Who art en - throned on high, Ab - ba! Fa - ther! Hear our cry:
 2 Be it now Thy gra - cious will, with Thy power to shield us still,
 3 That our ways may e - ver be or - dered, done, and found in Thee.

Thou, Who know'st our ev - ery thought, Thou Who hast in safe - ty brought with Thy care this day to keep from ill all Thy fee - ble sheep:
 Walk - ing e - ver in Thy sight, may we al - ways choose the right,

us, through all the by - gone night, to the dawn - ing of the light:
 though temp - ta - tions may sur - round, grant, in us, no sin be found:
 go - verned, gui - ded by Thy word, through Christ, Thy dear Son, our Lord.

Tune: Veni, Sancte Spiritus, Samuel Webbe (1740-1816)The Second Collect at Evening Prayer.

1 O God, Who dost our thoughts in - spire with ev - ery ho - ly, pure de - sire!
 2 From Whom a - lone just works pro - ceed, O make us just in will and deed!
 3 That our hearts may be set to o - bey Thy will and word, and keep Thy way,
 4 We cease from earth-born plea - sures' quest, and pass our time in qui - et rest,

Thou, Who art on - ly good and wise, in Whom the depth of knowledge lies:
 In peace di - vine grant us to live that peace the world can ne - ver give.
 that e - ver trust - ing Thy de - fense from ev - ery foe - man's proud pre - tense, through Je - sus Christ, our Sa - vior Lord, now and for - e - ver - more a - dored.

5 "Of thy great mer - cy," Lord, we pray through Je - sus Christ our Lord,

1 O Lord, our dark - ness light - en now; de - fend our homes from harm,
 2 Light - en the dark - ness of our minds, the dark - ness of our hearts;
 3 In ev - ery pe - ril of this night, our heav - enly keep - er be;
 4 In deep - est gloom of mo - ral night, light - en our dark - ness still;
 5 "Of thy great mer - cy," Lord, we pray through Je - sus Christ our Lord, to turn our dark - ness in - to day through Thine e - ter - nal word.

our aid in ev - ery pe - ril Thou, our stay in all a - larm!
 light - en the earth - ly gloom that blinds with grace Thy Truth im - parts.
 Pro - tec - tor, Guar - dian, Hel - per, Might: we find our all in Thee.
 o - pen our eyes to see the light and un - der - stand Thy will.
 to turn our dark - ness in - to day through Thine e - ter - nal word.

Tune: St. Flavian, melody from Day's Psalter, 1562; ad. and harm. Richard Redhead (1820-1901); desc. Alan Gray (1855-1935)

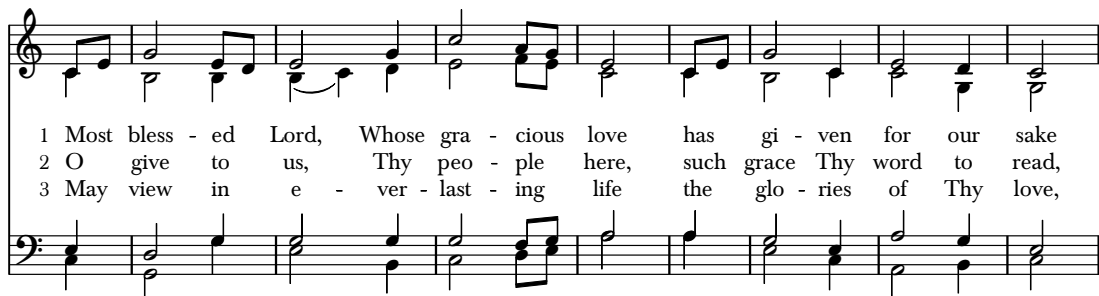

First Sunday in Advent.

1 O God, with hearts as in Thy sight, let us all e - vil cast a - way,
 2 Deep in our hearts write His dear love, His wondrous great hu - mi - li - ty,
 3 O make us love and serve Thee now, that when His se - cond Ad - vent come, and walk as chil - dren of the light, in - he - ri - tors of end - less day.

 Who left for us those courts a - bove, most low - ly babe on earth to be!
 we in His right - eous - ness may bow and wait to hear our wel - come home.

En - a - ble us to buck - le on the ar - mor of the Chris - tian life,
 Kindle, O Lord, these chil - ly hearts with wond'ring love, with thank - ful praise;
 E - ter - nal Fa - ther, Son most blessed, and Ho - ly Spi - rit, Three in One:

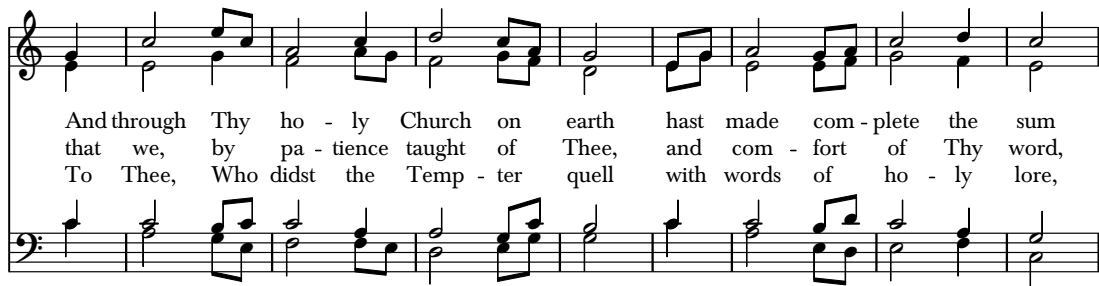

to bat - tle till the war be won; O cheer and guide us in the strife.
 Thy grace a - lone thy power im - parts to Thee a thankful song to raise.
 to Thee all wor - ship be addressed, as was, and is, and shall be done.

Second Sunday in Advent.

1 Most bless - ed Lord, Whose gra - cious love has gi - ven for our sake
 2 O give to us, Thy peo - ple here, such grace Thy word to read, 3 May view in e - ver - last - ing life the glo - ries of Thy love, the Ho - ly Spi - rit from a - bove, Pro - phets and Scribes to make;

 to mark, to learn, to search, to hear, and in - ward - ly to feed;
 and, freed from tears, and sin, and strife, may feast with Thee a - bove.

And through Thy ho - ly Church on earth hast made com - plete the sum that we, by pa - tience taught of Thee, and com - fort of Thy word,
 To Thee, Who didst the Temp - ter quell with words of ho - ly lore, of Scrip - tures of di - vin - est worth, un - til thy king - dom come:

 aye hold - ing fast our hope, may see Thy face, O bless - ed Lord!
 with Fa - ther, Spi - rit, One, dost dwell, be glo - ry e - ver - more.

Third Sunday in Advent.

1 Head of Thy Church, O Sa - vior Word! Thou at Thy first ad - vent
 2 That by re - pen - tence preached to men, Thy way should be pre - pared;
 3 Grant that the stew - ards of Thy will may so o - be - dient be,
 4 So suf - fer - ing, toil - ing, for Thy sake, Thy peo - ple to pre - pare, be - fore Thy path, most gra - cious Lord, the pro - mised pro - phet sent,

 "Voice from the De - sert" heard, and then Thy cup of suf - fer - ing shared:
 drink deep - ly of the wa - ters still, the foun - tain - spring in Thee!
 of dis - o - be - dient hearts may make a gar - land just and fair.

5 And when Thou com'st in dread array,
 with solemn trumpets' sound,
 prepared, accepted, in that day,
 O Lord, may we be found.

6 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 One God Whom we adore,
 be glory, as it was, is now,
 and shall be evermore.

Tune: Windsor, William Damon (1540?-1591?); harm. Thomas Este (1540?-1609)

Fourth Sunday in Advent.

1 Raise up, O Lord, Thy migh - ty power;
 2 Hin - dered, let, and sore - ly sha - ken,
 3 O Lord, show forth Thy power and might;
 4 De - lay not, Lord; O haste to rise
 5 Our sat - is - fac - tion, God the Son:

shield us in fierce tem - pta - tion's hour;
 in the race we've un - der - ta - ken;
 the dawn is near, let it be light;
 with help to cheer our watch - ing eyes;
 for us sal - va - tion Thou hast won,

when storm and tem - pest round us low'r,
 seem we of our hope for - sa - ken;
 Thou com'st to bless our long - ing sight;
 hear, Lord, O hear Thy peo - ple's sighs,
 to Thee all rev' - rence due be done,

the gra - ces of Thy Spi - rit show'r,
 from this - ces state of our souls a - wa - ken,
 teach us to use Thy grace - wa - ken,
 for Him who all Thy the world a - right,
 with Fa - ther, Spi - rit, Three shall prize, One,

Thou Lord of life and love!
 Thou Lord of life and love!
 Thou Lord of life and love!
 the Lord of life and love!
 now, and for ev - er - more.

5 Grant this through our In - car - nate Lord, Who liv - eth aye with Thee;

1 Al - might - y God, we wor - ship Thee, Who un - to us hast giv'n,
 2 Thine on - ly Son our flesh to take, In - car - nate God to rest,
 3 Grant to Thy ser - vants, born a - new, re - gen - er - ate in Thee, and with the Ho - ly Ghost a - dor'd, one God in Tri - ni - ty.

Re - dee - mer, Sav - ior, Lord to be, Thy ve - ry Son from Heav'n.
 born of a Vir - gin for our sake, Em - man - uel man - i - fest.
 Thy Spi - rit's soft re - fre - shing dew, our dai - ly strength to be.

4 Thou by adoption and by grace hast giv'n the children's right; 5 Grant this thru' our Incarnate Lord, Who liveth aye with Thee;
 in us may Thy blest Spirit trace our heritage of light. and with the Holy Ghost adored, one God in Trinity.

St. Stephen's Day.

1 Lord, if we suf - fer for Thy sake to tes - ti - fy for Thee,
 2 En - a - ble us in stead - fast love our up - ward look to keep,
 3 May we by faith be - hold Thy seat, as faith - ful Ste - phen saw,
 4 So let Thy Ho - ly Ghost de - scend; our pre - cious in - mate be, with joy our cros - ses let us take, Thine own di - sci - ples be.

 by faith to pen - e - trate a - bove, and faith's re - ward to reap.
 with rev' - rence bow be - fore Thy feet, wor - ship with ho - ly awe.
 our con - stant, our un - chang - ing Friend, to lead us af - ter Thee!

- 5 For hate, to make us yield back love, 6 Prayed unto Thee, Thou blessed One, 7 Jesus! Thy own first martyr's trust, by His almighty aid, Thy place at God's right hand, our only pleader Thou!
 as Holy Stephen gazed above, from whence Thy gracious succors come Our Mediator, Holy, Just:
 and for his murd'ers prayed; to all the suff'ring band. before Thy throne we bow.

6 In all our feeble helplessness Thy gracious aid afford,

1 Al-might-y, Ever-last-ing Lord, in Thee is all our trust,
 2 Thou know-est, Lord, where-of we're made; Thou know-est all our powers;
 3 In-firm of pur-pose, faith so weak, love burns with feeble flame,
 4 What hearts are ours, when low we kneel to wor-ship at Thy fane, our Help-er and our Right-eousness, Je-su, Re-deem-er, Lord!

Who by Thine e-ver-liv-ing Word hast formed us from the dust!

Epiphany

The sixth Sunday after the Epiphany.

1 O God, Whose e - ver - bless - ed Son was man - i - fest - ed to the world,
2 And by His won-drous ad - vent we should gain the gift of Heaven-ly life,
3 Hav - ing this hope so seal - ed sure with God's own prom - i - ses of grace,
4 That when a - gain He comes in might, in heaven-ly glo - ry to ap - pear, that coun-sels of the e - vil one by Christ might be to ru - in hurled:

the Sons of God should call - ed be, and armed to wage the sa - cred strife.
O sanc - ti - fy us; make us pure, meet through Christ's blood to see His face.
we stand ap - prov - ed in His sight, by Him en - tit - led to draw near.

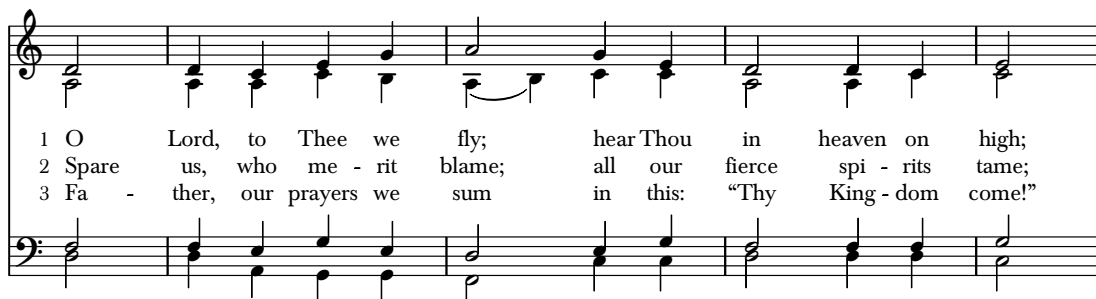

5 Clad in His robe of righteousness,
hear we our gracious Savior's voice:
"Enter into my blessedness,
My faithful servants, and rejoice."

6 Thus may we glorious entrance gain
through the belov'd eternal Son,
where Father, Spirit, aye doth reign,
most mighty, holy, Three in One.

Tune: Verbum supernum prodiens, plainsong, Mode 8, 13th cent.

The Sunday called Septuagesima, or the third Sunday before Lent.

1 O Lord, to Thee we fly; hear Thou in heaven on high;
 2 Spare us, who me - rit blame; all our fierce spi - rits tame;
 3 Fa - ther, our prayers we sum in this: "Thy King - dom come!"

be to Thy peo - ple nigh: hear our prayer.

Easter

42

The fourth Sunday after Easter.

1 O God, to Thee our hearts we lift to fill them with Thy love;
2 Thou on - ly or - der - est the will of ev - ery hu - man mind;
3 Thou on - ly canst Thy peo - ple draw, to foll - ow, to o - bey,
4 Thou on - ly kin - dlest in the heart the flame of sa - cred fire 5 O grant to us, thy peo - ple here, our ear - nest love to prove;

our ev - ery good and per - fect gift de - scend - eth from a - bove.
Thou on - ly canst the pas - sions still, and the a - ffec - tions bind.
to love the strict - ness of Thy law, to seek the per - fect way.
that burns sal - va - tion to im - part, with ve - he - ment de - sire.
our hearts Thy pro - mised king - dom cheer, and our a - ffec - tions move:

6 That so, though changes manifold around us may abound,
our faith may fix the firmer hold,
where our true joys are found.

7 Thus faith, with ever-strength'ning wing,
shall urge her upward flight;
and love await her God and King,
her everlasting light!

The fifth Sunday after Easter.

1 Au - thor of good, e - ter-nal Lord! To seek - ing souls Thou dost ac - cord
 2 Hear Thou our hum - ble, deep de - sire, and with Thy grace our souls in - spire
 3 Let ho - ly thoughts our spi-rits sway, guiding our na - ture to o - bey, 4 Our stub - born wills in mer-cy guide; in meek o - be - dience quell our pride;

fru - i - tion of Thy sa - cred word in faith, and hope, and love.
 to burn with sa - cred liv - ing fire of faith, and hope, and love.
 that be - fore Thee we walk al - way in faith, and hope, and love.
 so may we close to Thee a - bide in faith, and hope, and love.

5 So ev'ry good and pious thought unto fruition may be brought,
 and deeds of active use be wrought
 in faith, and hope, and love.

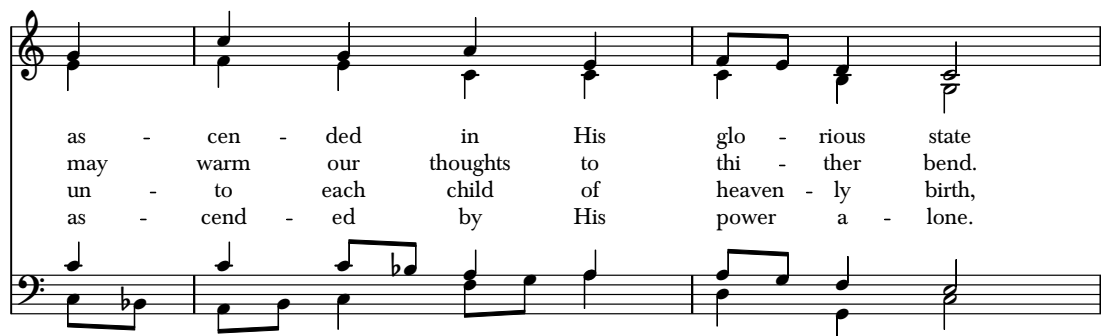

6 Through Jesus Christ, our Light of Light,
 our Savior, our Exemplar bright:
 in Him, aye hold we fast the right
 in faith, and hope, and love.

The Ascension-Day.

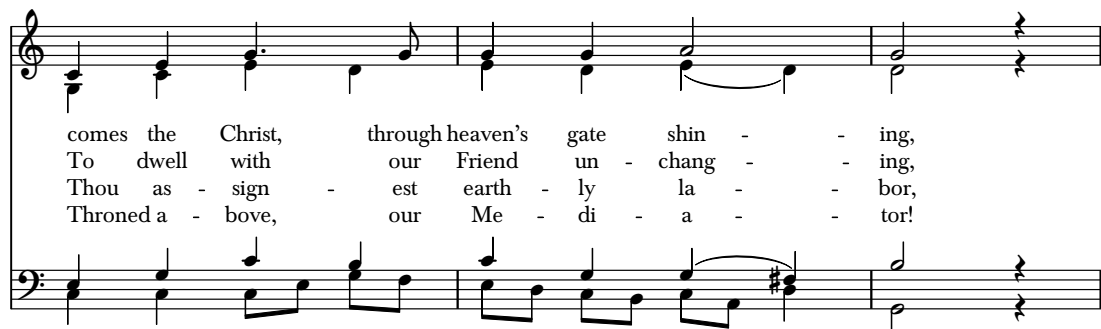

1 Migh - ty God, Thee e'er be - liev - - ing,
 2 Grant, we ask, Thy grace em - brac - - ing,
 3 Thou to us a path hast gi - - ven,
 4 Glo - ry, hon - or, praise e'er giv - - ing,

 Je - sus the Son, our God we own!

Re - splen - dent, glo - ri - ous!
 In hea - ven up a - bove,
 Yet what is done for Thee by - sus, vic -
 So we from day to day our ear - nest

to - ri - ous: al - le - lu - ia!
 found - est love: al - le - lu - ia!
 ward shall be: al - le - lu - ia!

He from this land His way did wend
 To our Lord dear let us draw near,
 To our dull hearts Thy grace im - part,
 To Fa - ther, Son and Spi - rit, One,

to high - est hea - ven to a - scend!
 by faith from night dis - cern - ing clear.
 to dwell with Christ a - bove in thought.

The first Sunday after Trinity.

1 O God, the strength of ev - ery heart whose trust is fixed on Thee:
 2 Our mor - tal na - ture is so weak; with - out Thee we are nought;
 3 So walk - ing through this tear - ful vale lean - ing u - pon Thy staff,
 4 May we walk ev - er close to Thee, sup - por - ted by Thy hand,
 5 To please Thee, both in will and deed; O God, Thy help af - ford!

Thy Spi - rit to our prayers im - part; let them ac - cep - ted be.
 the help of Thy sure grace we seek to guide our ev - ery thought.
 trust - ing the help that can - not fail, we liv - ing wa - ters quaff.
 so our en - dea - vor still shall be to keep Thy good com - mand:
 and with Thy grace our spi - rits feed, through Je - sus Christ, our Lord.

Tune: Dundee, melody from The CL Psalms of David, 1615; harm. Thomas Ravenscroft (1592-1635?)

The second Sunday after Trinity.

1 O Lord, how glo - ri - ous the gain of souls whom Thou hast deigned to train;
 2 In love and grace for aye the same, we pray Thee by Thy glo - rious name;

stead-fast they walk in grow-ing love, re - ceiv - ing unc - tion from a - bove, by ev - ery pro - mise in Thy word, to us Thy migh - ty aid af - ford;

in ev - ery tri - al, dan - ger, fear, up - held by Thy pro - tec - tion near,

 so no temp - ta - tions shall a - vail to cause our faith and trust to fail;

they join in Hal - le - lu - jahs meet, and cast their crowns be - fore Thy feet.
 so shall we grow in stead-fast love 'til per - fec - ted in Heaven a - bove.

The third Sunday after Trinity.

1 O Lord our God, en - throned a - bove in ev - er - last - ing light:
 2 We thank Thee, that to us is given a true de - sire to pray;
 3 Thou bidd'st us cast our care on Thee; Thou car - est, Lord, for us;

Hear us! we sup - pli - cate Thy love to guide our hearts a - right.
 send to our souls, O Lord, from Heaven Thy Spi - rit's quick - ening ray.
 O what is man? O what are we, that Thou shouldst love us thus?
 we to Thy love our - selves com - mend; con - form us to Thy will.

5 Should suffer, pain, and grief abound,
 O Lord, then comfort Thou;
 with consolations those surround
 who meek obedience show.

Thy faith - ful peo - ple, Lord, how few! Once more the power of faith re - new:
 send la - borers in Thy vine - yard, Lord, to work, to teach, to preach Thy word:
 from east, from west, from south, from north, O bring Thy faith - ful peo - ple forth:
 a - bid - ing in the Vine, may they bring forth more fruit from day to day:
 plen-teous re - ward of pro - mised grace in heaven to see Thee face to face:

Refrain

a - rise, O Lord, stir up our will; Thy Church with Thy blest Spi - rit fill.

6 O be it ours this crown to win,
 to live to God, to die to sin,
 forevermore to dwell with Thee
 in joy and immortality:
 sin, death, and hell, and every ill,
 destroyed at Thy Almighty will.

7 Praise God the Father, throned above;
 praise God the Son's redeeming love;
 praise God the Spirit, ever Lord,
 One God, one Trinity adored:
 O Triune Lord, stir up our will;
 Thy Church with Thy blest Spirit fill.

bless the Lord e - ter - nal; praise Him for - e - - ver.
 bless the Lord e - ter - nal; praise Him for - e - - ver.
 bless the Lord e - ter - nal; praise Him for - e - - ver.
 Is - rael-ite and Gen - tile; praise Him for - e - - ver.

5 Priests in His service, spirits of the righteous, holy and humble, bless the Lord eternal;
 three Hebrew children in the fiery furnace:
 praise Him forever.

6 Praise God the Father! Praise the Sole-Begotten!
 Praise God the Spirit, Trinity co-equal!
 As since creation, bless the Lord eternal:
 praise Him forever.

Benedictus es, Domine · Song of the Three Young Men, 29-34

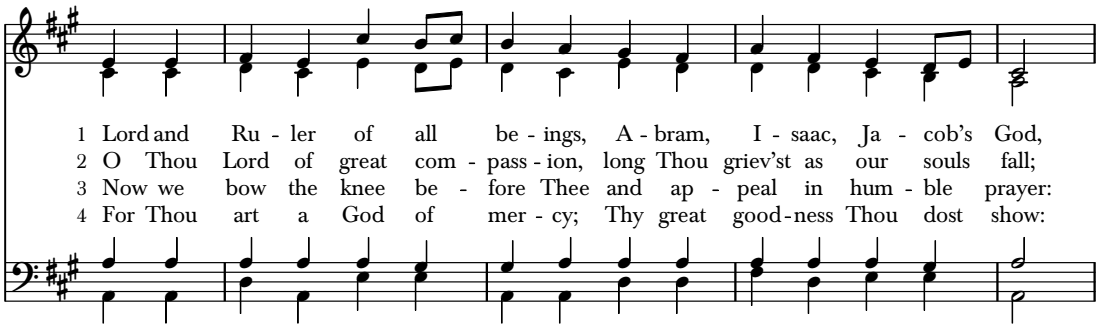

1 Glo - ry to Thee, O Lord God of our fa - thers;
 2 Glo - ry to Thee in the light of Thy tem - ple,

Kyrie Pantokrator · Prayer of Manasseh, 1-2, 4, 6-7, 11-15

1 Lord and Ru - ler of all be - ings, A - bram, I - saac, Ja - cob's God,
 2 O Thou Lord of great com - pass - ion, long Thou griev'st as our souls fall;
 3 Now we bow the knee be - fore Thee and ap - peal in hum - ble prayer:
 4 For Thou art a God of mer - cy; Thy great good-ness Thou dost show:

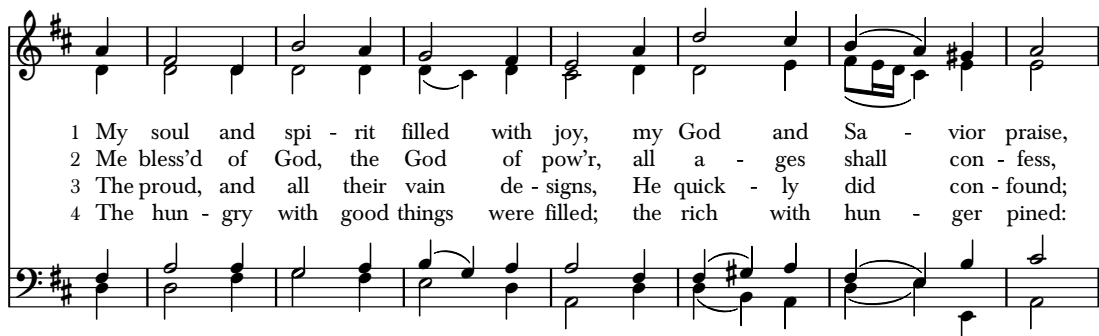

Mak - er of both earth and hea - ven, stretched, a - dorned, and spang - led broad:
 Thou hold'st back Thy hand from chast'ning, mer - cy off - 'ring un - to all!
 our deeds' mem - ory is most griev - ous, bur - den more than we may bear!
 we are but un - wor - thy sin - ners, yet Thou com - fort - est our woe.

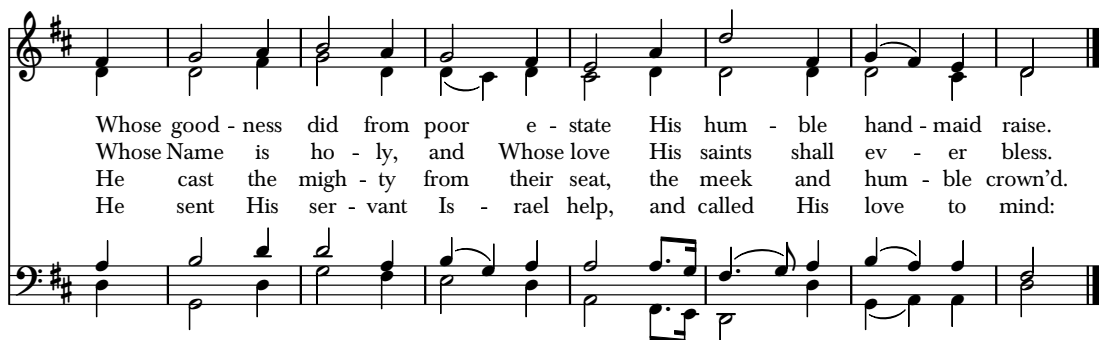

all things quake with fear be - fore Thee, trem - bling at Thy might - y power;
 In Thy gra - cious-ness Thou gav'st us Je - sus Christ, Whose death a - lign'd
 We have sin - ned, we have sin - ned, and like us Thou know'st it well:
 We will praise Thee with - out ceas - ing, in this life and ev - er - more;

but Thy pro-mised mer - cy 'stounds us, lov - ing us in ev - ery hour.
 sin and death and all Thy good-ness, for - giv'n sins for hu - man - kind!
 O for - give us, O for - give us; save our souls from death and hell!
 all of hea - ven sings Thy prai - ses, mer - ci - ful three - per - son'd Lord!

Magnificat · Luke 1:46-55

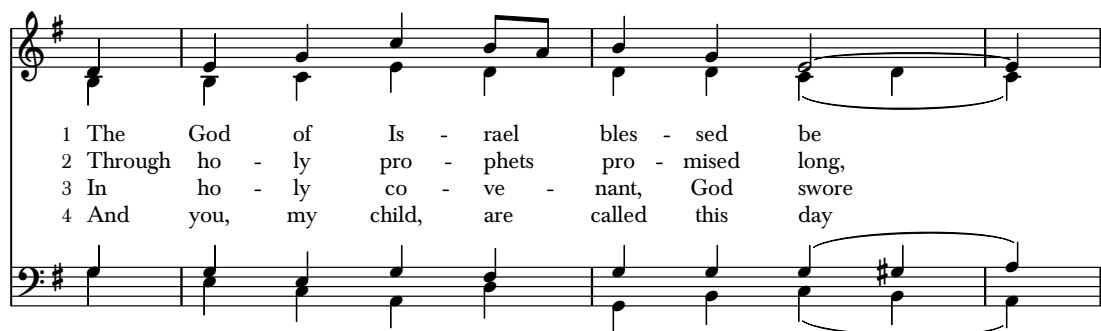

1 My soul and spi - rit filled with joy, my God and Sa - vior praise,
 2 Me bless'd of God, the God of pow'r, all a - ges shall con - fess,
 3 The proud, and all their vain de - signs, He quick - ly did con - found;
 4 The hun - gry with good things were filled; the rich with hun - ger pined:

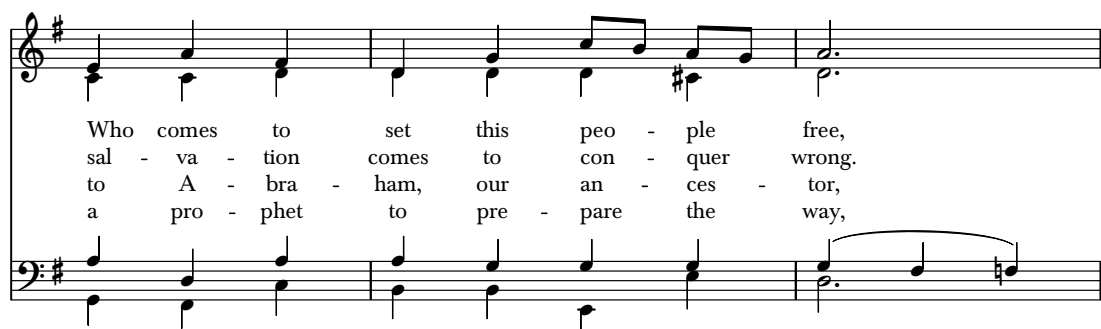

Whose good - ness did from poor e - state His hum - ble hand - maid raise.
 Whose Name is ho - ly, and Whose love His saints shall ev - er bless.
 He cast the migh - ty from their seat, the meek and hum - ble crown'd.
 He sent His ser - vant Is - rael help, and called His love to mind:

5 Which to our fathers heretofore
 by oath he did ensure,
 to Abram and his chosen seed forever to endure.

6 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 the God whom we adore,
 be glory; as it was, is now,
 and shall be evermore.

Original Collects

The Second Collect, for Peace. O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in thy defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 1

The Third Collect, for Grace. Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 2

The Second Collect at Evening Prayer. O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen. 3

The Third Collect, for Aid against all Perils. Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen. 4

First Sunday in Advent. Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen. 5

Second Sunday in Advent. Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen. 6

Third Sunday in Advent. O Lord Jesu Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messenger to prepare thy way before thee; grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight: who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 7

Fourth Sunday in Advent. O Lord, raise up, we pray thee, thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sin and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through the satisfaction of thy Son our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be honour and glory, world without end. Amen. 8

The Nativity of Our Lord, commonly called Christmas-Day. Almighty God, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin; grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 9

St. Stephen's Day. Grant, O Lord, that, in all our sufferings here upon earth for the testimony of thy truth, we may steadfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and, being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our persecutors by the example of thy first Martyr St. Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O blessed Jesus, who standest at the right hand of God to succor all those that suffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen. 10

St. John the Evangelist's Day. Merciful Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church, that it being enlightened by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle the Evangelist St. John, may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 11

The Innocents' Day. O Almighty God, who out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast ordained strength, and madest infants to glorify thee by their deaths; mortify and kill all vices in us, and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorify thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 12

The Sunday after Christmas-Day. Almighty God, who hast given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin; grant that we, being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 13

The Circumcision of Christ. Almighty God, who madest thy blessed Son to be circumcised, and obedient to the law for man; grant us the true Circumcision of the Spirit; that our hearts, and all our members, being mortified from all worldly and carnal lusts, we may in all things obey thy blessed will; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 14

The Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. O God, who by the leading of a star didst manifest thy only begotten Son to the Gentiles; mercifully grant, that we, which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 15

The first Sunday after the Epiphany. O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 16

The second Sunday after the Epiphany. Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 17

The third Sunday after the Epiphany. Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 18

The fourth Sunday after the Epiphany. O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 19

The fifth Sunday after the Epiphany. O Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy Church and household continually in thy true religion; that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace, may ever more be defended by thy mighty power; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 20

The sixth Sunday after the Epiphany. O God, whose blessed Son was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God, and heirs of eternal life; grant us, we beseech thee, that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves, even as he is pure; that, when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 21

The Sunday called Septuagesima, or the third Sunday before Lent. O Lord, we beseech thee favorably to hear the prayers of thy people; that we, who are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodness, for the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 22

The Sunday called Sexagesima, or the second Sunday before Lent. O Lord God, who seest that we put not our trust in anything that we do; mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended against all adversity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 23

The Sunday called Quinquagesima, or the Sunday last before Lent. O Lord, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee: grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen. 24

Ash-Wednesday. Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 25

First Sunday in Lent. Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 26

Second Sunday in Lent. O Lord, who for our sake didst fast forty days and forty nights; give us grace to use such abstinence, that, our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness, to thy honor and glory, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. 27

Third Sunday in Lent. We beseech thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of thy Majesty, to be our defense against all our enemies; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 28

Fourth Sunday in Lent. Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen. 29

Fifth Sunday in Lent. We beseech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 30

Sunday before Easter. Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 31

Good Friday. (I) Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 32

Good Friday. (II) Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen. 33

Good Friday. (III) O merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen. 34

Easter-Even. Grant, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections we may be buried with him; and that through the grave, and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection; for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 35

Easter Day. Almighty God, who, through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech thee, that, as by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 36

Monday in Easter Week. Almighty God, who, through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech thee, that, as by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 37

Tuesday in Easter Week. Almighty God, who through thy only begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech thee, that, as by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 38

The first Sunday after Easter. Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve thee in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 39

The second Sunday after Easter. Almighty God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life; give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavor ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 40

The third Sunday after Easter. Almighty God, who showest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. 41

The fourth Sunday after Easter. O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 42

The fifth Sunday after Easter. O Lord, from whom all good things do come; grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. 43

The Ascension-Day. Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thine only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. 44

Sunday after Ascension-Day. O God, the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; we beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Savior Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. 45

Whit-Sunday. God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen. 46

Monday in Whitsun-Week. God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen. 47

Tuesday in Whitsun-Week. God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Savior, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen. 48

Trinity Sunday. Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the divine Majesty to worship the Unity; we beseech thee, that thou wouldest keep us steadfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversaries; who livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen. 49

The first Sunday after Trinity. O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping of thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 50

The second Sunday after Trinity. O Lord, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love; keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 51

The third Sunday after Trinity. O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 52

The fourth Sunday after Trinity. O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen. 53

The fifth Sunday after Trinity. Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 54

The sixth Sunday after Trinity. O God, Who hast prepared for them that love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; pour into our hearts such love towards thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 55

The seventh Sunday after Trinity. Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; graft in our hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 56

The eighth Sunday after Trinity. O God, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; we humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 57

The ninth Sunday after Trinity. Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do anything that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 58

The Transfiguration. Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do anything that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 59

The tenth Sunday after Trinity. Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 60

The eleventh Sunday after Trinity. O God, who declarest thy Almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity; mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we, running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 61

The twelfth Sunday after Trinity. Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire, or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen. 62

The thirteenth Sunday after Trinity. Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service; grant, we beseech thee, that we may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 63

The fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 64

The fifteenth Sunday after Trinity. Keep, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: and, because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 65

The sixteenth Sunday after Trinity. O Lord, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 66

- The seventeenth Sunday after Trinity.* Lord, we pray thee that thy grace may always prevent and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 67
- The eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.* Lord, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 68
- The nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.* O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; mercifully grant, that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 69
- The twentieth Sunday after Trinity.* O Almighty and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldest have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 70
- The twenty-first Sunday after Trinity.* Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 71
- The twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.* Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 72
- The twenty-third Sunday after Trinity.* O God, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness; be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully we may obtain effectually; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 73
- The twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.* O Lord, we beseech thee, absolve thy people from their offenses; that through thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins which by our frailty we have committed: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Savior. Amen. 74
- The twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity.* Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 75
- St. Andrew's Day.* Almighty God, who didst give such grace unto thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him without delay; grant unto us all, that we, being called by thy holy Word, may forthwith give up ourselves obediently to fulfil thy holy Commandments; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 76
- St. Thomas the Apostle.* Almighty and everliving God, who for the more confirmation of the faith didst suffer thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's resurrection; grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt, to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in thy sight may never be reproved. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, now and for evermore. Amen. 77
- The Conversion of St. Paul.* O God, who, through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Saint Paul, hast caused the light of thy Gospel to shine throughout the world; grant, we beseech thee, that we, having his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may shew forth our thankfulness unto thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 78
- The Purification of the Virgin Mary.* Almighty and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that, as thy only begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in substance of our flesh, so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 79
- St. Matthias's Day.* O Almighty God, who into the place of the traitor Judas didst choose thy faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; grant that thy Church, being always preserved from false Apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true Pastors; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 80
- The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.* We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that, as we have known the Incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 81
- St. Mark's Day.* O Almighty God, who hast instructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangelist Saint Mark; give us grace, that, being not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, we may be established in the truth of thy holy Gospel; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 82
- St. Philip & St. James's Day.* O Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that, following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Saint Philip and Saint James, we may steadfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 83
- St. Barnabas the Apostle.* O Lord God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; leave us not, we beseech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them always to thy honor and glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 84
- St. John Baptist's Day.* Almighty God, by whose providence thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of thy Son, our Savior, by preaching of repentance; make us so to follow this doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 85

St. Peter's Day. O Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy Apostle Saint Peter many excellent gifts, and commandedst him earnestly to feed thy flock; make, we beseech thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach thy holy Word, and thy people obediently to follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 86

St. James the Apostle. Grant, O merciful God, that as thine holy Apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had, without delay was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him; so we, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow thy holy commandments; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 87

St. Bartholomew the Apostle. O Almighty and everlasting God, who didst give to thine Apostle Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach thy Word; grant, we beseech thee, unto thy Church, to love that Word which he believed, and both to preach and receive the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 88

St. Matthew the Apostle. O Almighty God, who by thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of custom to be an Apostle and Evangelist; grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of riches, and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen. 89

St. Michael & All Angels. O Everlasting God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels always do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 90

St. Luke the Evangelist. Almighty God, who calledst Luke the Physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist, and Physician of the soul; may it please thee, that, by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed; through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 91

St. Simon & St. Jude. O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone; grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 92

All Saints' Day. O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 93

For Purity. Almighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen. 94

The First Collect for the King's Majesty. Almighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite; have mercy upon the whole Church; and so rule the heart of thy chosen servant Charles, our [King] and Governour, that he (knowing whose minister he is) may above all things seek thy honour and glory: and that we, and all his subjects (duly considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed Word and ordinance; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen. 95

The Second Collect for the King's Majesty. Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of Charles thy Servant, our [King] and Governour, that, in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 96

Collect after the Offertory. (I) Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that, among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 97

Collect after the Offertory. (II) O Almighty Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern, both our hearts and bodies, in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments; that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen. 98

Collect after the Offertory. (III) Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words, which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honor and praise of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 99

Collect after the Offertory. (IV) Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 100

Collect after the Offertory. (V) Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking; we beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us, for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 101

Collect after the Offertory. (VI) Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son's Name; we beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us, that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant, that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 102

Original Canticles

Venite, exultemus · Ps 95

103

Rite I

- 1 O come, let us sing unto the LORD; *
let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving *
and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God, *
and a great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth, *
and the strength of the hills is his also.
- 5 The sea is his, and he made it, *
and his hands prepared the dry land.
- 6 O come, let us worship and fall down, *
and kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- 7 For he is the LORD our God, *
and we are the people of his pasture
and the sheep of his hand.
- 8 Today if ye will hear his voice,
harden not your hearts *
as in the provocation,
and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;
- 9 When your fathers tempted me, *
proved me, and saw my works.
- 10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation,
and said, *
It is a people that do err in their hearts,
for they have not known my ways.
- 11 Unto whom I swear in my wrath, *
that they should not enter into my rest.

Rite II

- 1 Come, let us sing to the LORD; *
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving *
and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God, *
and a great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are his also.
- 5 The sea is his, for he made it, *
and his hands have molded the dry land.
- 6 Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- 7 For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture
and the sheep of his hand. *
Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!
- 8 Harden not your hearts,
as your forebears did in the wilderness, *
at Meribah, and on that day at Massah,
when they tempted me.
- 9 They put me to the test, *
though they had seen my works.
- 10 Forty years long I detested that generation and said, * “This people are wayward in their hearts;
they do not know my ways.”
- 11 So I swore in my wrath, *
“They shall not enter into my rest.”

Jubilate Deo · Ps 100

104

Rite I

- 1 Be joyful in the LORD, all ye lands; *
serve the LORD with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Be ye sure that the LORD he is God;
it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves; *
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving
and into his courts with praise; *
be thankful unto him and speak good of his Name.
- 4 For the LORD is gracious;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Rite II

- 1 Be joyful in the LORD, all you lands; *
serve the LORD with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Know this: The LORD himself is God; *
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
- 4 For the LORD is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Rite I

- 5:7-8 Alleluia.
 Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; *
 therefore let us keep the feast,
 Not with old leaven,
 neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, *
 but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
 Alleluia.
- 6:9 Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; *
 death hath no more dominion over him.
- 10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once; *
 but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
- 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves
 to be dead indeed unto sin, *
 but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
 Alleluia.
- 15:20 Christ is risen from the dead, *
 and become the first fruits of them that slept.
- 21 For since by man came death, *
 by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
- 22 For as in Adam all die, *
 even so in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

Phos hilaron

Rite I

O gracious Light, *
 pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
 O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun, *
 and our eyes behold the vesper light,
 we sing thy praises, O God:
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Thou art worthy at all times to be praised by happy
 voices, *
 O Son of God, O Giver of life,
 and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Cantemus Domino · Ex 15:1-6, 11-13, 17-18

King James Version

- 1 I will sing unto the LORD,
 for he hath triumphed gloriously: *
 the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.
- 2 The LORD is my strength and song, *
 and he is become my salvation:
 he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; *
 my father's God, and I will exalt him.
- 3 The LORD is a man of war: *
 the LORD is his name.
- 4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army
 hath he cast into the sea: *
 his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.
- 5 The depths have covered them: *

Rite II

- 5:7-8 Alleluia.
 Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
 therefore let us keep the feast,
 Not with the old leaven,
 the leaven of malice and evil, *
 but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
 Alleluia.
- 6:9 Christ being raised from the dead
 will never die again; *
 death no longer has dominion over him.
- 10 The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
 but the life he lives, he lives to God.
- 11 So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
 and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.
- 15:20 Christ has been raised from the dead, *
 the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
- 21 For since by a man came death, *
 by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.
- 22 For as in Adam all die, *
 so also in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

Rite II

O gracious light, *
 pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
 O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun, *
 and our eyes behold the vesper light,
 we sing your praises, O God:
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy
 voices, *
 O Son of God, O Giver of Life,
 and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Rite II

- 1 I will sing to the LORD, for he is lofty and uplifted; *
 the horse and its rider has he hurled into the sea.
- 2 The LORD is my strength and my refuge; *
 the LORD has become my Savior.
 This is my God and I will praise him, *
 the God of my people and I will exalt him.
- 3 The LORD is a mighty warrior; *
 Yahweh is his Name.
- 4 The chariots of Pharaoh and his army
 has he hurled into the sea; *
 the finest of those who bear armor have been drowned in the Red Sea.
- 5 The fathomless deep has overwhelmed them; *

- they sank into the bottom as a stone.
- 6 Thy right hand, O LORD,
is become glorious in power: *
thy right hand, O LORD,
hath dashed in pieces the enemy.
- 11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? *
who is like thee, glorious in holiness,
fearful in praises, doing wonders?
- 12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, *
the earth swallowed them.
- 13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth
the people which thou hast redeemed: *
thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.
- 17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them *
in the mountain of thine inheritance,
in the place, O LORD,
which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, *
in the Sanctuary, O LORD,
which thy hands have established.
- 18 The LORD shall reign *
for ever and ever.

Ecce, Deus · Is 12:2-6

King James Version

- 2 Behold, God is my salvation; *
I will trust, and not be afraid:
for the LORD Jehovah is my strength and my song; *
he also is become my salvation.
- 3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water *
out of the wells of salvation.
- 4 And in that day shall ye say, *
Praise the LORD, call upon his name,
declare his doings among the people, *
make mention that his name is exalted.
- 5 Sing unto the LORD;
for he hath done excellent things: *
this is known in all the earth.
- 6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: *
for great is the Holy One of Israel
in the midst of thee.

Quaerite Dominum · Is 55:6-11

King James Version

- 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, *
call ye upon him while he is near:
- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, *
and the unrighteous man his thoughts:
and let him return unto the LORD,
and he will have mercy upon him; *
and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, *
neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

- they sank into the depths like a stone.
- 6 Your right hand, O LORD, is glorious in might; *
your right hand, O LORD,
has overthrown the enemy.
- 11 Who can be compared with you, O LORD,
among the gods? *
who is like you, glorious in holiness,
awesome in renown, and worker of wonders?
- 12 You stretched forth your right hand; *
the earth swallowed them up.
- 13 With your constant love
you led the people you redeemed; *
with your might you brought them in safety to your holy dwelling.
- 17 You will bring them in and plant them *
on the mount of your possession,
The resting-place you have made for yourself, O LORD, *
the sanctuary, O LORD,
that your hand has established.
- 18 The LORD shall reign *
for ever and for ever.

Rite II

- 2 Surely, it is God who saves me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the LORD is my stronghold
and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.
- 3 Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.
- 4 And on that day you shall say, *
Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name;
Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
- 5 Sing the praises of the LORD,
for he has done great things, *
and this is known in all the world.
- 6 Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, *
for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

109

Rite II

- 6 Seek the LORD while he wills to be found; *
call upon him when he draws near.
- 7 Let the wicked forsake their ways *
and the evil ones their thoughts;
And let them turn to the LORD,
and he will have compassion, *
and to our God, for he will richly pardon.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, *
nor your ways my ways, says the LORD.

- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, *
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain cometh down,
and the snow from heaven, *
and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth,
and maketh it bring forth and bud, *
that it may give seed to the sower,
and bread to the eater:
- 11 So shall my word be
that goeth forth out of my mouth: *
it shall not return unto me void,
but it shall accomplish that which I please, *
and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Surge, illuminare · Is 60:1-3, 11a, 14c, 18-19

King James Version

- 1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, *
and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
- 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, *
and gross darkness the people:
but the LORD shall arise upon thee, *
and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
- 3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, *
and kings to the brightness of thy rising.
- 11a Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; *
they shall not be shut day nor night;
- 14c and they shall call thee; The city of the LORD, *
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, *
wasting nor destruction within thy borders;
but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, *
and thy gates Praise.
- 19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; *
neither for brightness
shall the moon give light unto thee:
but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light,
and thy God thy glory.

Benedicite, omnia opera Domini · Song of the Three Young Men, 35-65

Rite I

- 35 O all ye works of the LORD, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.
- 37 O ye angels of the LORD, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.
- 36, 38 O ye heavens, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye waters that be above the firmament,
bless ye the LORD;
- 39 O all ye powers of the LORD, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.
- 40-41 O ye sun and moon, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye stars of heaven, bless ye the LORD;
- 42 O ye showers and dew, bless ye the LORD; *

- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, *
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as rain and snow fall from the heavens *
and return not again, but water the earth, Bringing forth life and giving growth, *
seed for sowing and bread for eating,
- 11 So is my word that goes forth from my mouth; *
it will not return to me empty;
But it will accomplish that which I have purposed, *
and prosper in that for which I sent it.

Rite II

- 1 Arise, shine, for your light has come, *
and the glory of the LORD has dawned upon you.
- 2 For behold, darkness covers the land; *
deep gloom enshrouds the peoples.
But over you the LORD will rise, *
and his glory will appear upon you.
- 3 Nations will stream to your light, *
and kings to the brightness of your dawning.
- 11a Your gates will always be open; *
by day or night they will never be shut.
- 14c They will call you, The City of the LORD, *
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 18 Violence will no more be heard in your land, *
ruin or destruction within your borders.
You will call your walls, Salvation, *
and all your portals, Praise.
- 19 The sun will no more be your light by day; *
by night you will not need the brightness of the moon.
The LORD will be your everlasting light, *
and your God will be your glory.

Rite II

- 35 Glorify the LORD, all you works of the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.
In the firmament of his power, glorify the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.
- 36-39 Glorify the LORD, you angels
and all powers of the LORD, *
O heavens and all waters above the heavens.
- 40-41 Sun and moon and stars of the sky,
glorify the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.
- 42-44 Glorify the LORD,
every shower of rain and fall of dew, *

praise him and magnify him for ever.

43-44 O ye winds of God, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye fire and heat, bless ye the LORD;

45 O ye winter and summer, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

46, 49 O ye dews and frosts, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye frost and cold, bless ye the LORD;

50 O ye ice and snow, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

47-48 O ye nights and days, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye light and darkness, bless ye the LORD;

51 O ye lightnings and clouds, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

52-53 O let the earth bless the LORD; *
O ye mountains and hills, bless ye the LORD;

54 O all ye green things upon the earth,
bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

56, 55 O ye wells, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye seas and floods, bless ye the LORD;

57 O ye whales and all that move in the waters,
bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

58-59 O all ye fowls of the air, bless ye the LORD; *
O all ye beasts and cattle, bless ye the LORD;

60 O ye children of men, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

61-62 O ye people of God, bless ye the LORD; *
O ye priests of the LORD, bless ye the LORD;

63 O ye servants of the LORD, bless ye the LORD; *
praise him and magnify him for ever.

64-65 O ye spirits and souls of the righteous,
bless ye the LORD; *
O ye holy and humble men of heart,
bless ye the LORD.

53-54 Glorify the LORD, O mountains and hills,
and all that grows upon the earth, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

55-57 Glorify the LORD, O springs of water, seas, and streams, *
O whales and all that move in the waters.

58 All birds of the air, glorify the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

59 Glorify the LORD, O beasts of the wild, *
and all you flocks and herds.

60 O men and women everywhere, glorify the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

61 Let the people of God glorify the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

62-63 Glorify the LORD,
O priests and servants of the LORD, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

64 Glorify the LORD,
O spirits and souls of the righteous, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

King James Version

- 1 O LORD, Almighty God of our fathers, * Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,
and of their righteous seed;

- 2 who hast made heaven and earth, *
with all the ornament thereof;

- 4 whom all men fear, *
and tremble before thy power;

- 6 but thy merciful promise *
is unmeasurable and unsearchable;

- 7 for thou art the most high LORD,
of great compassion, *
longsuffering, very merciful,
and repentest of the evils of men.

Thou, O LORD, according to thy great goodness
hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against thee: *
and of thine infinite mercies
hast appointed repentance unto sinners,
that they may be saved.

- 11 Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, *
beseeching thee of grace.

- 12 I have sinned, O LORD, I have sinned, *
and I acknowledge mine iniquities:

- 13 wherefore, I humbly beseech thee, *
forgive me, O LORD, forgive me,
and destroy me not with mine iniquities.

Be not angry with me for ever,
by reserving evil for me; *
neither condemn me to the lower parts of the earth.

- 14 For thou art the God,
even the God of them that repent; *
and in me thou wilt show all thy goodness:
for thou wilt save me, that am unworthy, *
according to thy great mercy.

- 15 Therefore I will praise thee for ever
all the days of my life: *
for all the powers of the heavens do praise thee,
and thine is the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Rite II

- 1 O LORD and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, *
God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,
and of all their righteous offspring:

- 2 You made the heavens and the earth, *
with all their vast array.

- 4 All things quake with fear at your presence; *
they tremble because of your power.

- 6 But your merciful promise is beyond all measure; *
it surpasses all that our minds can fathom.

- 7 O LORD, you are full of compassion, *
long-suffering, and abounding in mercy.

You hold back your hand; *
you do not punish as we deserve.

In your great goodness, LORD,
you have promised forgiveness to sinners, *
that they may repent of their sin and be saved.

- 11 And now, O LORD, I bend the knee of my heart, *
and make my appeal,
sure of your gracious goodness.

- 12 I have sinned, O LORD, I have sinned, *
and I know my wickedness only too well.

- 13 Therefore I make this prayer to you: *
Forgive me, LORD, forgive me.
Do not let me perish in my sin, *
nor condemn me to the depths of the earth.

- 14 For you, O LORD,
are the God of those who repent, *
and in me you will show forth your goodness.

- 15 Unworthy as I am, you will save me,
in accordance with your great mercy, *
and I will praise you without ceasing
all the days of my life.

For all the powers of heaven sing your praises, *
and yours is the glory to ages of ages. Amen.

Rite I

- 46-47 My soul doth magnify the LORD, *
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.

- 48 For he hath regarded *
the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold from henceforth *

Rite II

- 46-48 My soul proclaims the greatness of the LORD
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

- 48-49 From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
the Almighty has done great things for me,

all generations shall call me blessed.
 49 For he that is mighty hath magnified me, *
 and holy is his Name.
 50 And his mercy is on them that fear him *
 throughout all generations.
 51 He hath showed strength with his arm; *
 he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
 52 He hath put down the mighty from their seat, *
 and hath exalted the humble and meek.
 53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, *
 and the rich he hath sent empty away.
 54-55 He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant
 Israel, *
 as he promised to our forefathers,
 Abraham and his seed for ever.

and holy is his Name.
 50 He has mercy on those who fear him *
 in every generation.
 51 He has shown the strength of his arm, *
 he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
 52 He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
 and has lifted up the lowly.
 53 He has filled the hungry with good things, *
 and the rich he has sent away empty.
 54 He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *
 for he has remembered his promise of mercy, 55 The promise he made to our fathers, *
 to Abraham and his children for ever.

Benedictus Dominus Deus · Luke 1:68-79

Rite I

68 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, *
 for he hath visited and redeemed his people;
 69 And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us * in the house of his servant David, 70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, *
 which have been since the world began:
 71 That we should be saved from our enemies, *
 and from the hand of all that hate us;
 72 To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers, *
 and to remember his holy covenant;
 73 To perform the oath
 which he sware to our forefather Abraham, *
 that he would give us, 74 That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies *
 might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him, *
 all the days of our life.
 76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, *
 for thou shalt go before the face of the LORD
 to prepare his ways;
 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people *
 for the remission of their sins, 78 Through the tender mercy of our God, *
 whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness
 and in the shadow of death, *
 and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Rite II

68 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel; *
 he has come to his people and set them free.
 69 He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
 born of the house of his servant David.
 70-71 Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
 that he would save us from our enemies, *
 from the hands of all who hate us.
 72 He promised to show mercy to our fathers *
 and to remember his holy covenant.
 73-75 This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *
 to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
 Free to worship him without fear, *
 holy and righteous in his sight
 all the days of our life.
 76 You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, *
 for you will go before the LORD to prepare his way, 77 To give his people knowledge of salvation *
 by the forgiveness of their sins.
 78 In the tender compassion of our God *
 the dawn from on high shall break upon us, 79 To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
 and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Nunc dimittis · Luke 2:29-32

Rite I

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, *
 according to thy word;
 30-31 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, *

Rite II

29 Lord, you now have set your servant free *
 to go in peace as you have promised;
 30-31 For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, *

116

before the face of all people, 32 To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, *
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Dignus es · Rev 4:11, 5:9-10, 13

King James Version

4:11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, *
to receive glory and honour and power:
for thou hast created all things, *
and for thy pleasure they are and were created.
5:9 Thou art worthy to take the book, *
and to open the seals thereof:
for thou wast slain, *
and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;
10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: *
and we shall reign on the earth.
13 Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power,
be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, *
and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

Magna et mirabilia · Rev 15:3-4

King James Version

3 Great and marvelous are thy works,
Lord God Almighty; *
just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord,
and glorify thy name? *
for thou only art holy:
for all nations shall come and worship before thee; *
for thy judgments are made manifest.

Gloria in excelsis

Rite I

Glory be to God on high, *
and on earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee, *
we worship thee,
we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, *
God the Father Almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, *
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world, *

whom you have prepared for all the world to see:
32 A Light to enlighten the nations, *

Rite II

4:11 Splendor and honor and kingly power *
are yours by right, O Lord our God,
For you created everything that is, *
and by your will they were created and have their being;
5:9 And yours by right, O Lamb that was slain, *
for with your blood you have redeemed for God, 10 From every family, language, people, and nation, *
a kingdom of priests to serve our God.
13 And so, to him who sits upon the throne, *
and to Christ the Lamb,
Be worship and praise, dominion and splendor, *
for ever and for evermore.

Rite II

3 O ruler of the universe, Lord God, great deeds are they that you have done, *
surpassing human understanding.
Your ways are ways of righteousness and truth, *
O King of all the ages.
4 Who can fail to do you homage, Lord,
and sing the praises of your Name? *
for you only are the Holy One.
All nations will draw near
and fall down before you, *
because your just and holy works
have been revealed.

119

Rite II

Glory to God in the highest, *
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, *
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, *
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: *
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,

receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, *
have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy,
thou only art the Lord,
thou only, O Christ, *
with the Holy Ghost,
art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Te Deum

Rite I

We praise thee, O God; *
we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee, *
the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud, *
the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry: *
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
The glorious company of the apostles *
praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the prophets *
praise thee.
The noble army of martyrs *
praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world *
doth acknowledge thee,
the Father, *
of an infinite majesty,
thine adorable, true, *
and only Son,
also the Holy Ghost *
the Comforter.
Thou art the King of glory, *
O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son *
of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man *
thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, *
thou didst open the kingdom of heaven
to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, *
in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come *
to be our judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, *
whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy saints, *
in glory everlasting.

you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, *
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

120

Rite II

You are God: we praise you; *
You are the Lord; we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father: *
All creation worships you.
To you all angels, *
all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise: *
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
The glorious company of apostles *
praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets *
praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs *
praise you.
Throughout the world *
the holy Church acclaims you; Father, *
of majesty unbounded,
your true and only Son, *
worthy of all worship,
and the Holy Spirit, *
advocate and guide.
You, Christ, *
are the king of glory,
the eternal Son *
of the Father.
When you became man to set us free *
you did not shun the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death *
and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand *
in glory.
We believe that you will come *
and be our judge.
Come then, Lord, and help your people, *
bought with the price of your own blood,
and bring us with your saints *
to glory everlasting.

The Anglican Breviary

Kindly Mother of our Redeemer; great portal of heaven ever open, the sea's far-shining star: O succour thy people who though fallen strive to rise again. O thou who hast brought forth, to all nature's wonder, nature's Lord, thine own Creator: Mother yet a Virgin ever more, who at Gabriel's speaking didst receive the Ave: towards us sinners shew thy pity.

In Advent

℣ The Angel of the Lord brought tidings to Mary.
℞ And she conceived by the Holy Ghost.

Let us Pray. We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts: that, as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an Angel; so by his Cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection. Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. ℞ Amen.

From First Vespers of the Nativity

℞ Mother of God, intercede for us.

Let us Pray. O God, who by the child-bearing of a pure Virgin hast bestowed upon all mankind the rewards of everlasting life: grant, we beseech thee; that we may know the succour of her intercession, through whom we have been found worthy to receive the Author of life, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. ℞ Amen.

Ave Regina caelorum · The Presentation to Palm Sunday

The Anglican Breviary

Hail, O Queen, on high enthroned, *
Hail, O Lady, by Angels owned:
Jesse's rod; yea, heaven's portal *
Whence hath shone earth's Light immortal:
Hail, O Virgin, most renowned, *
For thy grace and beauty crowned:
Hail, O truly worthy Maiden: *
Pray Christ for us so burden-laden.

℣ My praise by thee accepted be, O hallowed Virgin.

Let us Pray. We beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to assist our infirmity: that like as we do now commemorate blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, Mother of God; so by the help of her intercession we may die to our former sins and rise again to newness of life. Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. ℞ Amen.

The Anglican Service Book

Gracious Mother of our Redeemer, for ever abiding Heaven's gateway, and star of ocean, O succor the people, who, though falling, strive to rise again. Thou Maiden who barest thy holy Creator, to the wonder of all nature; ever Virgin, after, as before thou receivedst that Ave from the mouth of Gabriel; have compassion on us sinners.

In Advent

℣ The Angel of the Lord announced unto Mary.
℞ And she conceived by the Holy Ghost.

Let us pray: We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts: that, as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ (announced) by the message of an angel (to the Virgin Mary), so by his * cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

From First Vespers of the Nativity

℣ After Childbearing, O Virgin, thou didst remain inviolate.
℞ Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray: O God, who by the fruitful virginity of Blessed Mary hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: Grant, we beseech thee, that we may know the help of her intercession through whom we have been accounted worthy to receive the Author of our life, Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

122

The Anglican Service Book

Queen of the heavens, we hail thee, *
Hail thee, Lady of all the Angels;
Thou the dawn, the door of morning *
Whence the world's true light is risen:
Joy to thee, O Virgin glorious, *
Beautiful beyond all other;
Hail and farewell, O most gracious, *
Intercede for us alway to Jesus.

℣ Vouchsafe that I may praise thee, O holy Virgin.
℞ Give me strength against thine enemies.

Let us pray: Grant us, O merciful God, protection in our weakness: that we who celebrate the memory of the holy Mother of God may, through the aid of her intercession, rise again from our sins. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Anglican Breviary

Rejoice, Queen Mother of heaven, alleluia; *
 Christ whom meetly thou barest is risen, alleluia;
 His foresaying thus fulfilling, alleluia: *
 Offer to God thy praying, alleluia.

℣ Rejoice and be exceeding glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

Let us Pray. O God, who by the resurrection of thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ hast given joy unto the world: grant, we beseech thee; that through his Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. ℟ Amen.

Salve Regina · Ordinary TimeThe Anglican Breviary

All hail, O holy Queen, Mother exceeding merciful; Life's spring, sweet comfort, our Hopebearer, all hail. To thee our plaint we lift, children of Eve yet in exile. To thee our aspiring, and longing and weeping, lift we from this vale of sorrow. Ah then, Mary, be our intercessor; hither vouchsafe to turn thine eyes compassionate, and look upon us. And Jesus, blessed Offspring of thy womb, O Mother, shew thou to us when earthly exile endeth. O gentle, O loving, O gracious Virgin Mary.

℣ Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

℟ That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us Pray. Almighty, everlasting God, who by the co-operation of the Holy Ghost didst prepare the body and soul of the glorious Virgin-Mother Mary to become a dwelling-place meet for thy Son: grant that as we rejoice in her commemoration; so by her fervent intercession we may be delivered from present evils and from everlasting death. Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. ℟ Amen.

The Anglican Service Book

O Queen of heaven, be joyful, alleluia; *
 Because he whom so meetly thou barest, alleluia,
 Hath arisen, as he promised, alleluia: *
 Pray for us to the Father, alleluia.

℣ Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

Let us pray: O God, who, by the resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ didst vouchsafe to give gladness unto the world: Grant, we beseech thee, that we, being holpen by the Virgin Mary, his Mother, may attain unto the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Anglican Service Book

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy; hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

℣ Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

℟ That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Almighty and everlasting God, who by the cooperation of the Holy Ghost, didst prepare the body and soul of the glorious Virgin Mother Mary to become a habitation meet for thy Son: Grant that as we rejoice in her commemoration, we may be delivered by her loving intercession from our present evils and from eternal death. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
